DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 13 is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 13, it appears that this claim should depend from claim 1 not claim 11, so 'according to claim 1' should be changed to --according to claim 11--

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 6-13, and 17-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by U.S. Patent No. 3,905,313 to Grether.

Regarding Claims 1 and 11, Grether teaches an apparatus and method with a vehicle (Fig. 1) a support (#84 and 86) on the vehicle for receiving a roll of a sheet material such that the roll can dispense the sheet material as a strip laid onto the floor as the vehicle is moved across the floor; a hopper (#94) on the vehicle for receiving a feed material; and a dispensing nozzle (#100 and #98) of the hopper arranged for dispensing a layer of the feed material onto the strip after the strip is laid as the vehicle is moved forwardly.

Art Unit: 3643

Regarding Claims 2 and 12, Grether teaches the nozzle is elongate extending across the width of the strip of sheet material so as to deposit feed material substantially across full width (#100 and #98).

Regarding Claims 3 and 13, Grether inherently teaches the nozzle is arranged relative to the strip such that the nozzle leaves spaces free from the feed at the side edges of the strip (Fig. 4).

Regarding Claim 6, Grether teaches the support for the roll is mounted on the vehicle in front of the hopper (Fig. 4 #86 and 94).

Regarding Claim 7, Grether teaches the support for the roll is raised from floor (Fig. 4 #84).

Regarding Claim 8, Grether teaches the vehicle has ground wheels for supporting the hopper (#112).

Regarding Claim 9, Grether teaches the ground wheels are arranged on either side of the strip (Fig. 1 #112).

Regarding Claim 10, Grether teaches the vehicle is a trailer arranged to be towed (Fig. 1 #10).

Regarding Claim 17, Grether teaches the strip is laid flat on the floor and held in place solely by the feed material laid thereon (Fig. 4).

Regarding Claim 18, Grether teaches the feed is applied in a layer of constant thickness substantially across the full width of the strip leaving inherently a band at each edge of the strip which is free from the feed (Fig. 4 #96).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Art Unit: 3643

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4, 5, 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 3,905,313 to Grether in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,058,860 to Kinkead et al.

Regarding Claims 4, 5, 14, 15, and 16, Grether is silent on the nozzle including a shut-off valve for closing off feed when the vehicle is halted and the shut-off valve has a closure plate underneath the nozzle operable by a lever. However, Kinkead teaches a feed hopper attached to a trailer with a shut off valve (Kinkead #204 and 177). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to modify the teachings of Grether with the teachings of Kinkead at the time of the invention to provide an ergonomic means to control the release from the hopper to prevent wasting material with an undesirable release.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
